

Enhanced Practice	All practitioners who have more regular and intense contact with people with learning disabilities, their families and carers. For example, appropriately qualified staff and first level line managers in services that specialise in working with people with learning disabilities who present with significant challenging behaviour and / or specific emotional or mental health needs.	Establish a clear leadership role Provide a role model in the implementation of positive behavioural support Support staff to develop and maintain positive relationships with the people that they support Facilitate decision-making Understand the principles, processes and concepts of behaviour Understand and collect data Use a range of functional assessment tools	Positive Behavioural Support: person focused training Facilitators Pack NES (2011) available at – https://www.nes.scot.nhs.uk/media/1352191/pbs_facilitators_pack_oct_11.pdf Thinking about me? Essential psychological care for people with learning disabilities NES (2014) available at – https://www.nes.scot.nhs.uk/media/2714869/thinking_about_me.pdf Published in 2014 by the English government - New advice for staff on the use of restrictive interventions for patients with difficult behaviour available at - https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/positive-and-proactive-care-reducing-restrictive-interventions Available from the Tizard Centre at the University of Kent <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Diploma in Positive Behavioural Support</li> <li>• BSc in Positive Behavioural Support</li> </ul> The following is an observational checklist that can be used in services to identify how effectively services are implementing PBS - https://www.kent.ac.uk/tizard/resources/Observational-resource-final-13-10-16%20(1).pdf The following is an introduction to PBS from BILD aimed at service providers- http://www.bild.org.uk/capbs/pbs-awareness-course/
--------------------------	---	---	---

--	--	--	--